Membership 2020

The aim of The International Arts Club is to share our knowledge of today's art market and make it accessible.

By organizing exciting, informative and exclusive art events throughout the year, we make sure you have access to a wide range of insights about (new) trending artists and major art events. We are confident in our ability to provide the right context and expert advice when it comes to making well-informed decisions in buying art today. Throughout the last twenty years we have built a trustworthy network which is supportive of our mission to offer our members an honest look behind the scenes of the contemporary art world and all its various aspects. The International Arts Club was founded in 2018 by Jeannette ten Kate, aimed more directly at (international) young, budding art collectors.
